Bibliography Part II: L-Z

In Criticism and the Growth of Knowledge, edited by Lakatos, Imre, and Alan Musgrave,

Lamb, Hubert H. (1959). “Our Changing Climate, Past and Present (Address to BAAS).”

[https://doi.org/10.1023/A:1015778819992].

Lambeck, Kurt, et al. (2014). “Sea Level and Global Ice Volumes from the Last Glacial Maximum to the Holocene.” Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences 111:

Stimulation with Rising CO₂ Concentrations “Science 312: 1918-21 [doi:10.1126/science.1114722].

Weart DGW 4/22 Bibl II p.32

National Academy of Sciences, Commission on Geosciences, Environment and Resources

Events Can Be Reliably Linked to Global Warming.” Nature 489: 335-36 [doi:10.1038/489335b].

PAGES 2k Consortium (2013) SEE Ahmed et al..

Pearce, Fred (2006). “‘One Degree and We’re Done For’.” New Scientist 191, no. 2571 (Sept. 30), pp. 8-9.

Nature 324: 222-26.

Prather, Michael J. (2002). “Citation for Award of 2001 Roger Revelle Medal to James E. Hansen.” Eos, Transactions of the American Geophysical Union 83: 187.

Weart DGW 4/22 Bibl II p.58

Weart DGW 4/22 Bibl II p.60

Geophysical Research 95: 9983-10004.

SCOPE (1979 ff). “See Bolin Et Al. (13, 16, 29); Kates Et Al. (27).”

Uncertainties in Emissions (without Policy) and Climate Parameters.” Journal of Climate: [doi:10.1175/2009JCLI2863.1].

Sörlin, Sverker, and Melissa Lane (2018). “Historicizing Climate Change—Engaging New Approaches to Climate and History (Special Issue on Climate Change in History and Politics).” Climatic Change 151, no. 1.

United States Congress (94:2), House of Representatives, Committee on Science and Technology, Subcommittee on the Environment and the Atmosphere (1976). *The United States, Environmental Protection Agency (Joel B. Smith and Dennis Tirpak, eds.) (1989). The Potential Effects of Global Climate Change on the United States (Epa-230-05-89-050), Washington, DC, Environmental Protection Agency

Weart DGW 4/22 Bibl II p.104

Problem among Convection, Clouds, Atmospheric and Ocean Circulation.” Atmospheric Research 229: 255-68 [doi.org/10.1016/j.atmosres.2019.06.023], pdf at

Zhang, Julian (2007). “Increasing Antarctic Sea Ice under Warming Atmospheric and Oceanic

Zhang, Pingzhong, et al. (2008). “A Test of Climate, Sun, and Culture Relationships from an

Nature Climate Change 11: 132-36 [doi.org/10.1038/s41558-020-00955-x].

South Atlantic Salinity Pile-Up.” Nature Climate Change 10: 998-1003 [doi.org/10.1038/s41558-020-0897-7].

Zhuang, Yizhou, et al. (2021). “Quantifying Contributions of Natural Variability and Anthropogenic Forcings on Increased Fire Weather Risk over the Western United States.”
Publications of the National Academy of Sciences 118: e2111875118 [doi.org/10.1073/pnas.2111875118].

